DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted. Group I , claim(s) 22-35 and 41, drawn to an apparatus for measuring the weight of a preform for optical fibers.

Group II, claim(s) 36-40 and 42, drawn to a method for measuring the weight of a preform for optical fibers during a chemical deposition process.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The special technical feature that is common to both Groups I and II is disclosed in Japanese Patent Application Number 2001-163631 (Yasuhiro hereinafter). Specifically, Yasuhiro discloses elastically constraining an elongated element comprising a chemical deposition substrate for the formation of the preform (paragraph 7); inducing an oscillation of said elongated element (paragraph 21); detecting the frequency of oscillation of said elongated element (paragraph 14); and calculating the weight of the preform according to the detected frequency of oscillation (paragraph 15). Since the special technical feature common to both Groups is known, there is lack of unity a posteriori.

A machine language translation was used to interpret the patent. All citations correspond to the machine translated version which is attached.

Applicant is respectfully reminded that lack of unity of invention may be directly evident "a priori," that is, before considering the claims in relation to any prior art, or may only become apparent "a posteriori," that is, after taking the prior art into consideration. If it can be established that a single feature or a group of features common to both independent claims is known, then there is lack of unity a posteriori, since the single feature or group of features common to both independent claims is not a technical feature that defines a contribution over the prior art (see MPEP 1850 (II)).

3. A telephone call was made to Christine Washington on 16 July 2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
